

Imago Dei Middle School

Upper School Math Teacher (Grades 7/8)

Our Mission:

Founded in 2006, Imago Dei is a small, accredited, independent middle school dedicated to providing a quality, all-scholarship education for students from low-income families in Tucson. Imago Dei offers small class sizes, individual attention, and an extended school day and year. We admit students of diverse faith, races, cultures, and cognitive profiles. Our community is founded upon four core values – Honesty, Excellence, Respect, and Responsibility and we believe in never giving up on our students or families. We seek candidates who possess a deep commitment to our mission.

Teaching at Imago Dei

- Is centered around empowering our students to construct and communicate mathematical knowledge
- Is inquiry based, helping students to generate and explore their own questions and insights through thoughtfully planned, interactive lessons
- Allows teachers to focus on the development of math literacy and number sense
- Honors students and the assets they bring to the classroom and endeavors to create the space necessary for growth and high school readiness
- Exemplifies our four core values

Responsibilities:

- Lead-teaching or co-teaching math classes daily
- Assessing student growth and goal setting
- Creating and maintaining a Curriculum Map that includes innovative practices and accommodates students at varying academic levels
- Attending and actively participating in weekly staff meetings
- Participating in staff orientation prior to start of school year
- Participating in professional development at both department and school level

You will also be expected to:

- Participate in the Summer Session throughout the month of June
- Follow the annual Academic Calendar, with participation in staff development prior to the start of school year (beginning August 1st, 2022)

Qualifications:

Imago Dei is currently seeking applicants for a full-time Math Teacher who will teach 7th and 8th grade Math classes. The ideal candidate enjoys working in a fast-paced school environment.
